

Choosing to get behind the wheel of a Ford truck is, if you ask us, one of the best driving decisions you can make, and we here at Paoli Ford know that truck drivers all across the country deserve the best of the best. The Ford truck lineup has a lot to offer and, if you're curious about which ones have the much-discussed aluminum body, then we have the answers you seek.

If you're in the market for a powerful pickup, then none of the Ford trucks will let you down. The Ford F-150, F-250, and F-350 trucks all have high-strength, military-grade, aluminum-alloy bodies that provides all the strength and muscle you need with a much lower weight. No matter which one you choose, you'll be picking a ride that can take on nearly anything you throw at it.

Need to see one to believe it? Make your way out to our Paoli, PA dealership at your earliest convenience, take a look around the new Ford pickup truck model lineup, and prepare to fall in love. No matter which one appeals to your needs, we'll be there to give you the details and the offer of a test drive that we know you deserve.
